

Accident Reports

Quotes from accident reports
submitted to various Insurance companies:**

Coming home,
I drove into the wrong house
and collided with a tree I don't have.

The other car collided with mine
without giving warning of its intentions.

I thought my window was down,
but found it was up
when I put my hand through it.

I collided with a stationary truck
coming the other way.

The guy was all over the road;
I had to swerve a number of times
before I hit him.

I pulled away from the side of the road,
glanced at my mother-in-law,
and headed over the embankment.

In my attempt to kill a fly,
I drove into a telephone pole.

I had been driving for 40 years
when I fell asleep at the wheel

and had the accident.

To avoid hitting the bumper
of the car in front,
I struck the pedestrian.

My car was legally parked
as it backed into the other vehicle.

An invisible car came out of nowhere,
struck my vehicle and vanished.

I told the police that I was not injured,
but on removing my hat,
I found that I had a fractured skull.

I was sure the old fellow
would never make it to the other side of the road
when I struck him.

The pedestrian
had no idea which direction to run,
so I ran over him.

The indirect cause of this accident
was a little guy in a small car with a big mouth.

I was thrown from my car as it left the road.

I was later found in a ditch
by some stray cows.

The telephone pole was approaching.
I was attempting to swerve out of its way,
when it struck my front end.

I was unable to stop in time
and my car crashed into the other vehicle.
The driver and passengers then left immediately
for vacation with injuries.

 WRAP IT UP!

I sat down next to a guy in the doctor's office.
He was covered with bandages.
"Have an accident?" I asked.
"No thanks, I just had one," he replied.
(Two thousand comedians out of work and I have to sit by this guy.)

 MAGIC

The magician wrote on his accident report,
"I was driving down the street
And turned into a tree."
